Federal Legal Meaning of Paying $2 Million in Hush Money to Federal Contractors

Meaning Under U.S. Code When $2 Million Is Paid as Hush Money

If individuals paid $2,000,000 to federal contractors in California to hide attempted break-ins at seven federal-contractor facilities or systems, U.S. law interprets the conduct as a separate and severe criminal layer in addition to the cyber intrusions themselves. Below is the legal meaning and the likely U.S. Code implications.

10 Federal Obstruction & Cover-Up Crimes

1. 18 U.S.C. §1503 — Obstruction of Justice
Paying contractors to conceal information about a federal cybercrime constitutes obstruction.
2. 18 U.S.C. §1512 — Witness Tampering
Covers persuading, bribing, or paying someone to withhold information, alter logs, or lie.
3. 18 U.S.C. §1519 — Destruction or Concealment of Evidence
Includes suppressing reports, deleting data, or falsifying records due to hush money.

11 Federal Bribery & Corruption

4. 18 U.S.C. §201 — Bribery and Illegal Gratuities
Paying for concealment or favorable action.

12 Financial Crimes Related to the Payment

7. 18 U.S.C. §1956 — Money Laundering
If the hush money is derived from criminal activity, transferring it to conceal wrongdoing is laundering.
8. 18 U.S.C. §1956(a)(2) — International Money Laundering
Applies if any portion moved through foreign accounts or intermediaries.
9. 18 U.S.C. §1957 — Transaction Laundering
Criminal transactions exceeding $10,000.
10. 18 U.S.C. §1960 — Unlicensed Money-Transmitting Business
If shell entities or informal systems were used to route funds.

13 Fraud Against the United States

11. 18 U.S.C. §1031 — Major Fraud Against the United States
Concealing cyberattacks that affect federal procurement.
12. 18 U.S.C. §371 — Conspiracy to Defraud the United States
Agreement to obstruct lawful government functions.

14 Cybercrime Foundations (Aggravated by Cover-Up)

13. 18 U.S.C. §1030 — Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (CFAA)
Unauthorized access, attempted access, and conspiracy involving federal contractors.
14. 18 U.S.C. §1831–1832 — Economic Espionage Act
Theft of trade secrets or defense information.

15 California State-Level Crimes

15. Cal. Penal Code §§67–68 — State Bribery Statutes
Bribery of public or quasi-public employees in California.
16. California Obstruction Statutes
Interfering with reporting, falsifying records, or suppressing complaints.
17. California Conspiracy and Fraud Statutes

16 Federal Reporting & Compliance Violations

18. 18 U.S.C. §1001 — False Statements
If concealment leads to false or omitted incident reports.
19. False Claims Act (31 U.S.C. §§3729–3733)
Applies if concealment affects federal reimbursements or compliance obligations.

Summary

Paying $2 million in hush money to federal contractors to hide attempted cyber intrusions constitutes a federal obstruction, bribery, conspiracy, money-laundering, and fraud scheme, drastically escalating liability beyond the cyberattacks themselves.
